Stonefield Neighborhood Picnic—Sept. 12

The Stonefield Neighborhood Picnic will be held Sunday, Sept. 12 at Stonefield Park from 4-7 p.m.

Bring the kids and enjoy the music and games. Meet your neighbors! The Association will provide the grilled meat and drinks. Please bring a dish to pass. A $5.00 per family donation can be made at the event.

Please RSVP to Jon DiPiazza at jon101@chorus.net so we can place an accurate meat and drink order.

Bring chairs, blankets, games and your appetite! Volunteers are needed.

Back-To-School Coffee

When: Thursday, September 2nd, 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Where: The new Emlan's Bakery at Stonefield Glen

Who: Moms, Dads, Caregivers (and little ones)

Why: Celebrate! Commiserate! And FREE coffee.

Come to "Coffee Talk" sponsored by your Stonefield Neighborhood Association. Come get acquainted and visit with other parents getting their kids off to a whole new school year too. Explore and share information about teachers, PTA, Scouts, Sports, Activities and other related topics.

Emlan's Bakery, our newest "business" neighbor, has offered to serve the neighborhood free coffee for the morning – just tell them you're with the Stonefield Neighborhood. They have wonderful pastries for purchase as well. So come have a "cup of joe" and a sweet treat and start your school year with a smile!

WELCOMING COMMITTEE

Robin Sweet
1411 Shady Oak Circle
231-9966

Welcome New Neighbors!

Every year a few neighbors choose to move out of Stonefield which makes way for newcomers. Annually, about 5% of Stonefield turns over making opportunities for building new bonds with new folks.

When new neighbors move in, the Stonefield Welcoming Committee drops off a Welcoming Kit with maps and information about Middleton including Public Works Newsletters, Library information, and Chamber of Commerce Guides. We also issue a SNA directory, past newsletters, covenants, tidbits about the neighborhood and generous offerings from our business neighbors in Middleton.

The Welcome Committee would like to thank last year's sponsors as well as show gratitude to the group of donors recently signed on for the next run.

Thank You's for 2003-2004: Thank you's for 2004-2005:

If you have a Middleton business and would like the exposure to new potential customers, plus are willing to provide something of value product, gift certificates, buy-one-get-one offers), please call Robin Sweet at 231-9966 or email at roisweet@aol.com. Qualifying businesses will enjoy two years of exposure for FREE.

Thank You To.....

Liz Weirich of First Weber Realty, an SNA neighbor, for paying for the mailing cost of this newsletter.

Stonefield Neighborhood Covenant Compliance Committee

The SNA has established a Covenant Compliance Committee to provide information to homeowners about covenants and make homeowners aware of their rights to enforce the covenants. The Covenant Compliance Committee will help neighbors uphold covenants and restrictions and be a resource for neighbors who have questions about the covenants connected to home titles.

You may request a copy of the Covenant and Deed

Restrictions for your property by contacting the president of the SNA.

NOTE: The Stonefield Neighborhood Association (SNA) did not develop the covenants and is not responsible for enforcement. The SNA often receives complaints about noncompliance. However, we have a responsibility as a neighborhood to maintain the standards that we all agreed to when we purchased our homes.

Come bowl with the Tuesday Ten Pins

The Tuesday Ten Pin bowling league will be seeking bowlers and teams for the 2004-05 season. New bowlers to seasoned veterans--everyone's welcome! Bowling equipment is available--no need to buy your own.

Join some of your neighbors already in the league! Form your own four-person team with your friends, or join an established team, and look forward to Tuesday mornings.

This league is open to all women! No need to be a Stonefield neighbor to join.

Here's the scoop...

Tuesday mornings, 9:00 a.m.-11:30 a.m.

For more information, please call: Rosalie Koschkee at 831-0629.

The season runs from: September 14, 2004 – March 29, 2005 at Schwoegler Park Towne Lanes.

The (approximate) cost is $10 weekly. There is child care available. Prize $ is awarded at the end of the year!
