SNA board members elected

The following neighbors were elected to the SNA Board of Directors at the SNA annual meeting April 1:

Jon DiPiazza, president	Kathy Karofsky, treasurer
Tom Thieding, secretary	James Dvorsky, board member
Jeffery Mattox, board member	Mike Adler, board member
Tom Crozier, civic director

New neighborhood signs installed

New and attractive signs welcoming neighbors and visitors to Stonefield were installed the first week of May. The signs were produced and installed by Signs by Design, the company that did the original signs to the neighborhood.

Plants were obtained from the City of Middleton and planted during Arbor Day celebrations.

SNA board working on drainage and commuter rail concerns

The SNA board, along with Kurt Sonnentag, and in contact with the city over concerns of water drainage from city streets down into Cypress Trail. Water from moderate and heavy rains drains and collects at the end of the street, flooding basements.

The board is also in contact with city and county leaders on a commuter rail plan that has surfaced in discussions again. Original plans had a trains going through Stonefield every 7-8 minutes.

Donation to Elm Lawn woods project

The SNA board made a $250 payment to the Elm Lawn woods restoration project. The donation will be used for the purchase of plants. The woods project has removed invasive plants and is working to restore the oak savanna.
